Jewish Short Story Group

Moderated by Mashey Bernstein

Thursday, November 8
from 12 Noon -1 PM

Each month the Jewish Short Story Group meets to discuss stories of Jewish interest. An atmosphere of friendly repartee is encouraged, and the discussion is freewheeling and open ended. Everyone is welcome!

Contact Audrey@cbbsb.org for more information

ABOUT THE MODERATOR:

Mashey Bernstein, PhD, recently retired from the Writing Program and Film and Media Studies at UCSB. With this group, he sees himself more as a "master of ceremonies" than a lecturer.

NIXON'S COURT– AND OURS

8:45 AM: KENNY GAYNES MEMORIAL BEST DARN BREAKFAST

9:45 AM: SPEAKER

Think the confirmation of Brett Kavanaugh was divisive? Laura Kalman provides some historic context with a look at the battles that ensued between 1965 and 1971, when Presidents Johnson and Nixon launched their ambitious efforts to control the Supreme Court–battles that forever changed the court and still haunt today's nomination and confirmation process.
