YOUR GUIDE TO HIGH HOLY DAYS AT CONGREGATION B'NAI B'RITH

L'Shana Tova!

Dear Member of our CBB Family,

The time has come to prepare for the High Holy Days.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, the Jewish New Year and the Day of Atonement, rise up on the horizon before us, greeting us at the end of the summer and confronting us with the big questions of life:

How are we doing physically, emotionally, ethically, spiritually? What is the state of our important relationships with our family and with our closest friends? Where have we fallen short of our hopes for ourselves, and why, and where did we actually make some progress on our life's journey? Where can we find the courage, the strength and the wisdom to step confidently into the New Year?

I look forward to once again asking these questions in the warm embrace of our congregational community.

- Being together again with old friends and new
- Returning to Goleta beach for Tashlich
- Hearing again the familiar melodies of my childhood, sung so magnificently by our Cantor and Choir
- Seeing our many Temple families sitting together, with children grown older, and wiser
- Feeling the pang of loss of members of our community, or of my own family, who passed away this year or in recent memory
- Rejoicing in the fresh faces of the children in our young family services
- And breaking the Yom Kippur fast together at the end of a long day of prayer and reflection

I look forward to all of this, and to being together with all of you for a deeply meaningful, heart-warming and soul-shaking High Holy Day Season.

Marian and I, and our children Rachel and Zach and Ari all send you our most heartfelt wishes for a sweet, healthy, happy New Year.
