THE MARRIAGE OF OPPOSITES

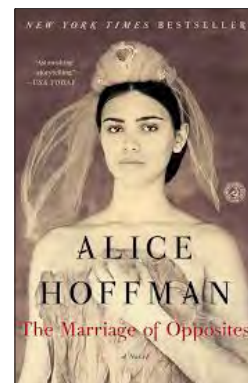

By Alice Hoffman

Sunday, December 8

9:00 AM Nosh

9:30 AM Discussion

Set in the early 1800s on idyllic St. Thomas, amid the refugee community of Jews, this novel charts a defiant, passionate love affair that impacts a community—and the future of a world-famous artist.

Moderated by

Mashey Bernstein

Thursday, November 14
from 12 Noon -1 PM

Each month the Jewish Short Story Group meets to discuss stories of Jewish interest. An atmosphere of friendly repartee is encouraged, and the discussion is freewheeling and open ended. Everyone is welcome!

Contact Audrey@cbsb.org for more information

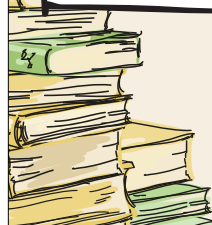

ABOUT THE MODERATOR:

Mashey Bernstein, PhD, recently retired from the Writing Program and Film and Media Studies at UCSB. With this group, he sees himself more as a "master of ceremonies" than a lecturer.

Facilitated by UCLA Professor
Charles Lynn Batten

A master teacher. Immensely popular and thought-provoking.
